

Word on the Street – What's news?

NOBODY knows local news like local people.

Singleton.net.au is a town-based news site and we are always on the look out for stories big, small, controversial, colourful, human-interest, public-interest...if locals are talking about it, it's news.

We love getting story leads from from our readers and we want to hear from you, after all as our tagline says, "Your Story, Your News".

If you've got news, let us know: Word on the Street.
